

PRELIMINARY PROJECT PROPOSAL

HAND-IN MAY 1st – STUDENTS

Format	Extent	Content
Project title (preliminary)	One sentence	The project title must be short and precisely worded in one sentence.
Project description (preliminary)	3-4 text pages	The project description must include what you propose to investigate (scope), how you propose to do it (project plan) and why (aim). Your project description should include, but is not limited to, discussion of the following points: What you propose to do: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Define the question you want to investigate, preferably worded as a problem statement for investigation. - Describe the objectives of your investigation and the academic or professional Danish context it feeds into. - Explicitly state, how your project investigates the development of an inclusive society for all by addressing products, environments, programmes and/or services. How you propose to do it: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Describe where you will gather your knowledge, such as your preliminary ideas for the organization of the project, including the environment(s) and experts, methods, and concepts you want to involve from practice and/or science. Why is the project important? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Describe your professional interests and perspectives motivating your investigation. - Explicitly state, how your project ideates and demonstrates inclusive approaches to human beings, explores universal design as a value-based design principle, and, ultimately, supports the pledge to Leave No One Behind in a future sustainable society, regardless of ability in Denmark. - Discuss what benefits the project will produce for others (people, society, your discipline) in Denmark. NB: You are to word your project description for reviewers from other disciplines than you own.
References	1-2 text pages	Provide a source of references for your project description.
Illustrative material (optional)	1-4 pieces	Illustrative material may be included in the preliminary project proposal, but it is not mandatory. Illustrative material could include, but is not limited to, self-developed or existing drawings, figures, models, tables and/or photos.

		NB: This material is to support the descriptions of what you propose to investigate (scope), how you propose to do it (project plan) and why (aim).
--	--	---

Format Requirements:

- A4, Single-spaced, 10-point font, 1-inch margins.
- Use headers and/or bullets to organize and convey key elements; use page numbers.
- File type: Adobe PDF.
- Do not include hyperlinks or direct reviewers to external websites.

Note on copyright: By submitting your project proposal, you give the Bevica Scholarship Programme the non-exclusive, perpetual right to reproduce the proposal or any part of the proposal, in any and all media at the Bevica Scholarship Programme's discretion. A "non-exclusive" right means you are not restricted from publishing your project proposal elsewhere if you use the following attribution that must appear in the new placement: "First submitted to and/or published by the Bevica Scholarship Programme (www.bevicascholarship.dk) competition year 2023 (and if applicable) and winner of that year's First Scholarship prize." Finally, you warrant that the project proposal does not violate any intellectual property rights of others and that you will indemnify the Bevica Scholarship Programme against any costs, loss, or expense arising out of any violation of this warranty.